

SCHOOL- SPONSORED INFORMATION

A. General School Publications

School publications are defined as materials developed and/or published under the direction of the superintendent for the purposes of informing the public about the schools. These materials must be accurate reasonably attractive and consistent with Board policies.

The Board encourages the publication and distribution to the public of informative school publications.

B. Individual School Publications

School publications, prepared under the direction of the principal and for distribution to the public, must meet the same criteria of accuracy, attractiveness and consistency as applies to publications prepared in the central administration offices.

C. To the Community

Students may transmit communications to parents from parent organizations affiliated with the schools. With the permission of the superintendent, students may transmit communications to their parents that have significant educational or social value in the community.

Students, school employees and school facilities are not to be used as a means of distributing information or advertising that are not directly associated with the educational goals and objectives of the school district.

D. Distribution In the Schools

Under regulations established by the superintendent, announcements or notices that have significant educational or social value may be announced or posted in the schools or distributed by the students.

C. School Mail Distribution Service

The use of the school mail distribution service shall be limited to school business, school-related organizations and organizations approved by the Board.

Adopted by Board: May 29, 1980